HASAN MALIK DAVIS,

v.

Plaintiff,

WASHOE COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE,
et al.,

Defendants.

Case 3:22-cv-00325-MMD-CSD

ORDER

12 Pro se Plaintiff Hasan Malik Davis brings this civil-rights action under 42 U.S.C.
13 § 1983 to redress constitutional violations that he claims he suffered while incarcerated
14 at Washoe County Detention Center. (ECF No. 19.) On February 14, 2023, the Court
15 ordered Davis to file a fully complete application to proceed in forma pauperis ("IFP
16 Application") for non-prisoners or pay the full $402 filing fee on or before March 17, 2023.
17 (ECF No. 25.) The Court warned Davis that the action could be dismissed if he failed to 18 file a fully complete IFP Application for non-prisoners or pay the full $402 filing fee for a 19 civil action by that deadline. (Id. at 2.) That deadline expired and Davis did not file a fully 20 complete IFP Application for non-prisoners, pay the full $402 filing fee, or otherwise 21 respond.

22 District courts have the inherent power to control their dockets and "[i]n the 23 exercise of that power, they may impose sanctions including, where appropriate . . .
24 dismissal" of a case. Thompson v. Hous. Auth. of City of L.A., 782 F.2d 829, 831 (9th Cir.
25 1986). A court may dismiss an action based on a party's failure to obey a court order or 26 comply with local rules. See Carey v. King, 856 F.2d 1439, 1440-41 (9th Cir. 1988)
27 (affirming dismissal for failure to comply with local rule requiring pro se plaintiffs to keep 28 court apprised of address); Malone v. U.S. Postal Serv., 833 F.2d 128, 130 (9th Cir. 1987)

1 (dismissal for failure to comply with court order). In determining whether to dismiss an 2 action on one of these grounds, the Court must consider: (1) the public's interest in the 3 expeditious resolution of litigation; (2) the Court's need to manage its docket; (3) the risk
 4 of prejudice to Defendants; (4) the public policy favoring disposition of cases on their 5 merits; and (5) the availability of less drastic alternatives. See In re Phenylpropanolamine
 6 Prod. Liab. Litig., 460 F.3d 1217, 1226 (9th Cir. 2006) (quoting Malone, 833 F.2d at 130).

7 The first two factors, the public's interest in expeditiously resolving this litigation
 8 and the Court's interest in managing its docket, weigh in favor of dismissal of Davis's
 9 claims. The third factor, risk of prejudice to Defendants, also weighs in favor of dismissal
 10 because a presumption of injury arises from the occurrence of unreasonable delay in filing
 11 a pleading ordered by the court or prosecuting an action. See Anderson v. Air West, 542
 12 F.2d 522, 524 (9th Cir. 1976). The fourth factor—the public policy favoring disposition of 13 cases on their merits—is greatly outweighed by the factors favoring dismissal.

14 The fifth factor requires the Court to consider whether less drastic alternatives can 15 be used to correct the party's failure that brought about the Court's need to consider 16 dismissal. See Yourish v. Cal. Amplifier, 191 F.3d 983, 992 (9th Cir. 1999) (explaining 17 that considering less drastic alternatives before the party has disobeyed a court order
 18 does not satisfy this factor); accord Pagtalunan v. Galaza, 291 F.3d 639, 643 & n.4 (9th
 19 Cir. 2002) (explaining that “the persuasive force of” earlier Ninth Circuit cases that 20 “implicitly accepted pursuit of less drastic alternatives prior to disobedience of the court’s 21 order as satisfying this element[,]” i.e., like the “initial granting of leave to amend coupled 22 with the warning of dismissal for failure to comply[,]” have been “eroded” by Yourish).
 23 Courts “need not exhaust every sanction short of dismissal before finally dismissing a 24 case, but must explore possible and meaningful alternatives.” Henderson v. Duncan, 779
 25 F.2d 1421, 1424 (9th Cir. 1986). Because this action cannot realistically proceed until and 26 unless Davis either files a fully complete IFP Application for non-prisoners or pays the 27 $402 filing fee for a civil action, the only alternative is to enter a second order setting
 28 another deadline. But the reality of repeating an ignored order is that it often only delays

1 the inevitable and squanders the Court's finite resources. The circumstances here do not
2 indicate that this case will be an exception: there is no hint that Davis needs additional 3 time or evidence that he did not receive the Court's order. Setting another deadline is not
4 a meaningful alternative given these circumstances. Thus, the fifth factor also favors 5 dismissal.

6 Having thoroughly considered these dismissal factors, the Court finds that they 7 weigh in favor of dismissal.

8 It is therefore ordered that this action is dismissed without prejudice based on 9 Davis's failure to file a fully complete application to proceed in forma pauperis or pay the 10 full $402 filing fee in compliance with the Court's February 14, 2023, order.

11 The Clerk of Court is directed to enter judgment accordingly and close this case.
12 No other documents may be filed in this now-closed case. If Davis wishes to pursue his 13 claims, he must file a complaint in a new case.

14 DATED THIS 20th Day of April 2023.
